America The Pitiful

Master

Oh pitiful for smoggy skies With amber lanes of waste With Dreadful mountain poverty's So many infants slain

America, America
God shed his wrath on thee
No livelihood, It's just not good
From sea to blackened sea

Time ticks away, but still they play With plans of conquering
The industry, they think they're free
Toy soldiers of the damned

America, America God shed his death on thee No livelihood, it's just not good From sea to blackened sea

Oh Beautiful for spacious skies

With amber waves of grain With purple mountain majesties Above the fruited plain

America, America God shed his grace on thee With crown thy hood and brotherhood From sea to shining sea
