

We're About to Fall

Master

Anger is mixing with terror,
Police always lining the streets,
Searching for endless adventures,
Stalking the land of the free,

We're about to fall,
There's nothing left today,
We're about fall,
No-one will fuckin be saved,
There's talk about facing the nation,
It's chilling when it's face to face,
An idol that's been just a puppet.
Where violence is just common place.
