

Pray on My Soul

Masterplan

I'm feeling lonely down and out
I know my heart just wanna shout, no no no

And I tear down every feeling
I'm convincing you to stay
All your sadness I can see no more
And it's all become a lie

And I pray on my soul, I wan't call your name no more
Never felt this way somehow before
And I'm falling, I'm hating, it feels like I'm suffocating
There is no more chance, I can't hold on

Life's never gonna fall apart
I'll give myself a brand new start

And I tear down every feeling
Not convincing you to stay
All your sadness I can't see no more
And I just became alive

And I pray on my soul, I wan't call your name no more
Never felt this way somehow before
And I'm falling, I'm hating, it feels like I'm suffocating
There is no more chance, I can't hold on
I can't hold on!

And I pray on my soul, I wan't call your name no more
Never felt this way somehow before
And I'm falling, I'm hating, it feels like I'm suffocating
There is no more chance, I can't hold on
And I pray on my soul, I wan't call your name no more
There is no more chance, I can't hold on
