The Czar

Mastodon

Don't stay; run away
He has ordered assassination
Don't stay; run away
The henchmen are gathered and waiting
Don't stay; run away
Your role as usurper is found out
Don't stay; run away
Tsarina has warned of the danger

It's your own fault
That is what we wanted
It's your own fault
This is where we lay

By the light of the moon You must escape into the deep black of the night Fight the devil inside Enemies poison deep within my second sight Wasting valuable time

Ride the tides of blood Illumination Beauties sudden hand Shattered crown Stretching arms up high We're on our way now Leave the Czar to die

Spiraling up through the crack in the sky Leaving material world behind I see your face in constellations The martyr is ending his life for mine
