

Trainwreck

Mastodon

Life's changed
Yet remain the same
Basking in an afterglow
I did not know
I am here in shadows island

Lying, hopeless wondering
All questions exhaust me

Life's changed
Yet remain the same
Basking in an afterglow
I did not know
I am here in shadows island

Lying, hopeless wondering
All questions exhaust me

Running, screaming, chanting
For all this land, I've seen its worth
Helping all for times sake
It brings me work, pinned to this world

Running, screaming, chanting
For all this land, I've seen its worth
Helping all for times sake
It brings me work, pinned to this world
