

Moving On

Mat Kearney

We were young, we were brave
With our eyes wide shut in the choices we made
Well you lit the match and I got caught with the flames
And your voice still rings out through my mind
And the thorn still twist down in my side
All the promises that we left for dead in the night (wooo wooo)
Because I'm moving on, letting go, forget the past
And giving up the ghost
All we are is fading stars, life's too short to stay where we are.

Forgiving then live and move on tell me that's gonna make me stronger,
forgiving then live and move on (woooo)
Forgiving then live and move on tell me that's gonna make me stronger,
forgiving then live and move on (woooo)

Maybe I'm broken, maybe it's the fate
Maybe it's the moment you said I had changed
Where did thirteen years go like I didn't know you at all (wooo wooo)
Because I'm moving on, letting go, forget the past
And giving up the ghost
All we are is fading stars, life's too short to stay where we are.

Forgiving then live and move on tell me that's gonna make me stronger,
forgiving then live and move on (woooo)
Forgiving then live and move on tell me that's gonna make me stronger,
forgiving then live and move on (woooo)

I heard you were back with regrets and you meant it
I had a real surprise, your text never sent it
Bridges were burning and accusation
Funny how time is the great revelation (woooo)
Moving on, letting go, forget the past and giving up the ghost
All we are is fading stars, life's too short to stay where we are.

Forgiving now live and move on tell me that's gonna make me stronger, forgiving then live and move on (woooo) (5x)
