

If All Else Fails

Matchbook Romance

All subdued silence undisturbed by the sound of her breath
So carefully, brush her hair back from her eyes in steady sequence, one by one
She slips away

So close your eyes and sleep to dream
I'm by your side
No words to speak
We'll set our course and make it through
No matter how far I go
My heart remains with you

And I'm not sure
What I'm looking for
But it's clear to see the purpose of my existence
Is laying here right in front of me

And if all else fails you can look up at the sky
Because it's the same one
That shines above you and I

And if all else fails you can close your eyes
And I'll be right beside you
I'll be the one by your side

No matter how far I go
No matter how much this hurts
I wanted you to know
My heart remains with you
