I had a scrap with a sailor one night.
We were both drunk.
I said
" Just because you're a sailor, you think you're a man, if you're going to report me, go ahead you little dick..."
And I fell off the stool.
And I fell off the stool.
I was fulla whisky, single cask.
He went to the captain :
" You better throw this guy out; he must be some kind of a phoney".
