

Give Me Tonight

Matraca Berg

The world is waiting in the drive, another day begins
We wake up barely half alive, here we go again
We pay our bills and we don't complain
We just drive faster in the carpool lane
Are we in love or are we insane, baby?

Give me tonight, you're still the one
Light up the stars, blow out the sun
Chase that old moon till he gives up the fight
Oh, give me tonight

A picture's hanging on the wall from our wedding day
Well, you and me we had a ball, nothing in our way
You gave me love and a diamond ring
We bought a house and an old porch swing
Well now, baby, there's just one more thing

Give me tonight, you're still the one
Light up the stars, blow out the sun
Chase that old moon till he gives up the fight
Oh, give me tonight

This mean old world won't seem so crazy
If I could hear you call me, baby, baby

Give me tonight, you're still the one
Light up the stars, blow out the sun
Chase that old moon till he gives up the fight
Oh, give me tonight

Baby, give me tonight, give me tonight
