Ooh ooh ooh...

Sleep now under my skin Make sure you'll try to Conjure the wind And ease my mind

Ooh ooh ooh...

Somebody call out to your brother
He's calling out your name
Ooh ooh ooh
Hiding under the covers
With no one else to blame
Ooh ooh ooh
You couldn't help out your own neighbor
You couldn't tell it to his face
You were fucked up by the blame

You cower in the corner Confide in your father Let it out and say Let it pass away

Sleep now under my skin Make sure you try to Conjure the wind And ease my mind

And I said
Ooh ooh ooh...

Somebody call out to your brother
He's calling out your name
Ooh ooh ooh
Hiding under the covers
With no one else to blame
Ooh ooh ooh
You couldn't help out your own neighbor
You couldn't tell it to his face
You were fucked up by the blame

You cower in the corner Confide in your father Let it out and say

You cower in the corner Confide in your father Let it break your day Let it out and say

Wait there
Pull yourself out of this state dear
Acknowledge you were a fake here
From there on you might just grow
Oh oh oh

Somebody call out to your brother
He's calling out your name
Ooh ooh ooh
Hiding under the covers
With no one else to blame
Ooh ooh ooh
Oh, you couldn't help out your own neighbor
You couldn't tell it to his face
You were fucked up by the blame
