Good Ol' Fashion Nightmare

Matt & Kim

Show me the side streets in your life Train yards like bone yards sharpend knives Sidewalks are unassuming fields Concrete and cracks won't cut you deals Won't cut you deals, won't cut you.

Lost teeth like white jewels of some kind Petty theft for penny crimes, for penny crimes and we yell.

ah, like a good ol' fashion nightmare, ah ah, like a good ol' fashion nightmare, ah

Riding trains to the end of lines Still we've got nothing but time The skylight looks brighter tonight Let's go smash out every light your left foot in fron of right, in front of right and we yell

ah, like a good ol' fashion nightmare, ah ah, like a good ol' fashion nightmare, ah ah, like a good ol' fashion nightmare, ah ah, like a good ol' fashion nightmare, ah
