

Someday

Matt & Kim

They say time can tell
But can time say
Falling out from under me
And hours turn into weeks
Like concrete streets
Falling out from under me
Falling out from under me

I might grow old someday
But I won't turn pale and gray
Dim down the lights

And when my body aches
My bones won't break
Falling out from under me
Falling out from under me

I might grow old someday
But I won't turn pale and gray
Dim down the lights
I'm turning up tonight

I might grow old someday
But I won't turn pale and gray
Dim down the lights
I'm turning up tonight

I'm turning up tonight
I'm turning up tonight
I'm turning up tonight
I'm turning up tonight
