

Sometime Soon (movin' On)

Matt Mays

Thought I was living large 'til my car broke down
On the coldest night of the year
Thought I was getting there, but I guess I was wrong
I had snow in my shoes
Hasn't happened yet, maybe sometime soon
And if not today or tomorrow (one of these days)
And if not today or tomorrow

We got so much snow I went blind for a day
And I didn't know who was who
Thought I was getting there, but I guess I was wrong
I had snow in my shoes
Hasn't happened yet, maybe sometime soon
And if not today or tomorrow (one of these days)
And if not today or tomorrow

I was dreaming of palm trees and a well-working car
It was the warmest night of the year
Felt like I was there 'cause I had the warm sun in my hair
And I had sand in my shoes
Hasn't happened yet, maybe sometime soon
And if not today or tomorrow (one of these days)
And if not today or tomorrow (one of these days)
And the green grass is one thing you can borrow (this time of the year)
And if not today or tomorrow
(Gotta get movin' on, 'cause this life is gonna be rough) (repeat)
