

Bare

Matt Nathanson

In the light
In the daylight it's all wrong
To revel in your memory
The smell of your body
And the seconds that it kept me warm

And I'm coming down
Hitting ground
Breaking open
Twisted around
The sweet sound of the lies you told
When you were broken

Cause they've gone away
And I'm so sorry
Cause you're wide awake and
Planning parties now for all the fools
Who've gone and left you bare

And you said
In all your tragedy
You'd rather hide in mine
Oh so warm
So sad you said I made your whole world shine

And I'm coming down
Hitting ground
Breaking open
Twisted around
The sweet sound of the lies you told
When you were broken

Cause they've gone away
And I'm so sorry
Cause you're wide awake and
Planning parties now for all the fools
Who've gone and left you bare

They left you there
And now I'm gone with all the fools
Who left you bare
They left you there
Said so long dear

Cause now I'm coming down
I'm hitting ground
I'm breaking open
Twisted around
The sweet sound of the lies that you told me
When you were broken
Cause you're always broken

They've gone away
And I'm so sorry
Cause you're wide awake and
Planning parties now for all the fools

Gone away
And I'm so sorry
Cause you're wide awake and
Planning parties now for all the fools
