

Cricket's

Matt Pond PA

The warmth has you taking off your coat
In the darkness behind the greens and gold
There's always things you wish you hadn't done
There's always things you wish you hadn't done

Winter again will help you breathe
Comfort that comes with less to see
There's always things you wish you hadn't done
There's always things you wish you hadn't done