Crickets

Matt Pond PA

The warmth has you taking off your coat
In the darkness behind the greens and gold
There's always things you wish you hadn't done
There's always things you wish you hadn't done

Winter again will help you breathe Comfort that comes with less to see There's always things you wish you hadn't done There's always things you wish you hadn't done