

The Hollows

Matt Pond PA

Erasers impress me everyday
They have a way
Of forgetting easily
Morning when your better half
Has gone out back
And you can't hide what you see
Hide the hollows from me
What's there, windows holes intact
Behind me lacks the walls for me to breath
I'm there
I am all around
I am spread out
The wide transparency
Hide the hollows from me

I'm not into explaining
The symbol's slight but burning bright
Hide the hollows
