The Hollows

Matt Pond PA

Erasers impress me everyday They have a way Of forgetting easily Morning when your better half Has gone out back And you can't hide what you see Hide the hollows from me What's there, windows holes intact Behind me lacks the walls for me to breath I'm there I am all around I am spread out The wide transparency Hide the hollows from me

I'm not into explaining The symbol's slight but burning bright Hide the hollows