

One Name Alone

Matt Redman

Everybody praises the thing they love
Everyone announces what they adore
Where you lay your treasure there is your heart
There is Your heart there you find your heart

Everybody's singing a song inside
Bowing down low with a sacrifice
We speak many words but our hearts we show
By what we're spending our lives upon

One name alone I am living for
One name my heart and my soul adore
Be the first and the last
Be the song that I sing
Jesus be my everything

Let if be seen in this life now
If anyone should look my way at all
This I prize and treasure most
You my God and You alone
Well it's You my God and only You

One name alone I am living for
One name my heart and my soul adore
Be the first and the last
Be the song that I sing
Jesus be my everything

O o la la la la la la la la la
Everybody praises the thing they love
O o la la la la la la la la la
I'll be praising You my God

O o la la la la la la la la la
Everybody praises the thing they love
O o la la la la la la la la la
I'll be praising You my God
