

I'm Sorry, Mary

Matt Wertz

I wish I could say what words won't amount to,
But now I can't speak your name
Send it in a letter
Wait for your reply
Because you were on my mind

I'm sorry Mary but it's over (you took the best out of me)
I'm sorry Mary but it's over (you took the best out of me)
I'm sorry Mary but it's over (you took the best out of me)

First star I see tonight hangs on my wall
Picture of you that's still there
Wouldn't change anything
Would you change me if I could
Would you want me to be here

I'm sorry Mary but it's over (you took the best out of me)
I'm sorry Mary but it's over (you took the best out of me)
I'm sorry Mary but it's over (you took the best out of me)

Illusions all but faded
Sunlight beams in your hair
Trying me

I'm sorry Mary but it's over (you took the best out of me)
I'm sorry Mary but it's over (you took the best out of me)
I'm sorry Mary but it's over (you took the best out of me)
