

Sunny Day

Matt Wertz

She didn't see it coming. Yeah, it hit her blindside.
The storm that was building, I held it all inside.
The tears started falling, like rain on my window.
Why does love, it hurt? We let it go.

Another day, another time when it'll be clear.
And I'm gonna find my way through the clouds
And all the grey.
Til then I'll be sitting here waiting,
Waiting on a sunny day.

My momma always told me, love ain't always perfect.
There's gonna be heartbreak, but hunny it's worth it.
But what about the late nights, hard fights
When nobody's wrong or right? I'll keep praying for..

Another day, another time when it'll be clear.
And I'm gonna find my way through the clouds and
All the grey.
Til then I'll be sitting here waiting,
Waiting on a sunny day.

Sunny day. I still love you, baby. I keep praying for..

Another day, some other time when it'll be clear.
And I'm gonna find my way through the clouds
And all the grey.
Til then I'll be sitting here waiting,
Waiting on a sunny day.

Waiting on the sun, waiting on the sun...
Waiting on a sunny day.
