

Waiting

Matt Wertz

I'm waiting, all of my life been waiting
To get it right, but that still seems like its so far away
And I'm taking all the advice I'm given
Trying to find out how a kid like me becomes a man

'Cause I guess I'm just scared I'm the only one here
Growing old, growing old but not quite growing up

Maybe, if I had a Somebody, maybe
She would stand by me and somehow then I'd act more like my age
Until thenm I'll be the one pretending
I'm perfectly fine with all this living life here on my own

'Cause I guess I'm just scared I'm the only one here
Growing old, growing old but not quite growing up

'Cause I guess I'm just scared I'm the only one here
Growing old, growing old but not quite growing up

I'll be waiting
