

Cold Winds

Matthew Mayfield

Do you remember me
Do you remember me?
Do you remember what we said we'd lost
And what it cost?
Do you recall the scene
Do you recall the scene?
Do you remember whispering to me
That we were free
And you were always on my side

Cold winds blow in
And I, I can't recall
The warmth you breathed inside
Now it's gone
I can't remodel all these thoughts
Still I lie, I lie
Without you tonight

Do you believe in this
A love dismissed
In winter's frozen emptiness
It's baron kiss
Would you turn around
If you heard the sound
The echo of the spring abounds
The dawn surmounts
And we are finally overground

Cold winds blow in
And I, I can't recall
The warmth you breathed inside
Now it's gone
I can't remodel all we've lost
