

Ghost

Matthew Mayfield

I'm giving up my ghost today
I wonder why it ends this way
Everything I give, you take
You're on your way

I don't wanna die alone
Kiss my lips, hold me close
Head to head we'll sink the boat
Let's try it tow to tow

I've been on my knees again
Wishing I could just begin
To try and let the ghost back in
To show we're more than bones and skin

You read my hand blind, I fold
I guess these are the seeds I've sown
It doesn't matter what you owe
You'll pay the toll

I've been on my knees again
Wishing I could just begin
To try and let the ghost back in
To show we're more than bones and skin

I've been searching far and wide
Looking for the truth you hide

I've been on my knees again
Wishing I could just begin
To try and let the ghost back in
To show we're more than bones and skin

More than bones and skin
