

Missed Me

Matthew Mayfield

Rise up from the city like the fire that ate your bones
The coldest mystery of misery is Dying here on your own
I've seen all the answers
But all the questions remain unknown, remain unknown
I'm still giving away the only escape that remains

Come on come on
Help me out
Show me the way
You could be
I wanna know, I wanna know
I'm coming home to a girl
Who'll say
She missed me when I'm gone

Fire and rock 'n roll
