

Timeless Art

Matthew Mayfield

Take...take nothing, babe and give...give yourself away the timeless art of men

No time for throwing punches yet you fight for her, yeah you fight for her when all of you's gone and lifeless you die for her, yeah you die for her... again.

Streets...buried in the sea will rise...rise to meet our feet someday she'll walk with me

you die for her, yeah you die for he comes time to see the sun set it will rise for her, it will rise for her
when all of you's gone and lifeless you die for her, yeah you die for her
