

Sinking Wishes

Matthew Perryman Jones

Sinking wishes in the water
I've thrown them out
Fumbling to the floor to wait
What follows now
Let it go
Only wishes wait

I'm taking a chance to find
what's real inside
I'm taking a chance this time
On you
I've got nothing to loose

Climbing onto giant shoulders
And looking out
Longing eyes scan for a sign
Where are you now
I don't know
So I'll fall on faith

I'm taking a chance to find
what's real inside
I'm taking a chance this time
On you
I've got nothing to loose

I don't mind facing it all
Well, do you now
I won't lay under a fog
I'm moving toward you
