

Dinosaur Act

Matthew Sweet

Born on a cloud, stupid and proud
I'm gonna take you back now
Cursed by the past, held under glass
I was too hard to shake down

And I'm coming back with my dinosaur act
Did you forget me, baby, after the fact?
I'm telling you

I'm coming back with my dinosaur act
I still remember, baby, what we both lack
We both lack

Lost in the head, lost in your bed
I wouldn't call you lucky
You're getting old, ready to fold
You do not feel like fighting, don't worry

'Cause I'm coming back with my dinosaur act
Do you forget me, baby, after the fact
(I'm telling you)
I'm coming back with my dinosaur act
I still remember, baby, what we both lack

We both lack
We both lack

And I'm coming back with my dinosaur act
Do you forget me, baby, after the fact
(I'm telling you)
I'm coming back with my dinosaur act
I still remember, baby, what we both lack

We both lack
We now lack
We now lack
We now lack
