

Someone To Pull The Trigger

Matthew Sweet

Well, I'm loaded and ready
Calmly holding steady
Looking for a sign to show me when
Well, I'm waiting and willing
The clarity is chilling
But I'm not turning back
And neither can you

I need someone to pull the trigger
'Cause there's a hole in my heart getting bigger
And everything I'll ever be, I've been
And I need someone to pull the trigger
So if you're what I think you'll be
If you're who I think I see, shoot

So hold me and love me
Tie me up and drug me
'Cause I'm not gonna beg you for my life

I need someone to pull the trigger
'Cause there's a hole in my heart getting bigger
And everything I'll ever be, I've been
And I need someone to pull the trigger
So if you're what I think you'll be
If you're who I think I see, shoot
