

99% Soul

Matty Mullins

One percent body, ninety-nine percent soul
I want to look like you, talk like you, know you more
One percent body, ninety-nine percent soul
Make me more like you, come on and make me

I remember a time when I never thought that I'd believe
A prisoner to myself like everyone else
Thinking life was about me, but then I figured it out

One percent body, ninety-nine percent soul
I want to look like you, talk like you, know you more
One percent body, ninety-nine percent soul
Make me more like you, come on and make me whole

Every day is a new chance to be the man you see in me
So I'll live life one mistake at a time
And trust that grace will guide my feet
I'll never look back knowing that everywhere I go you'll be
I see the truth of your love shining bright through every part of me
So I just want to be

One percent body, ninety-nine percent soul
I want to look like you, talk like you, know you more
One percent body, ninety-nine percent soul
Make me more like you, come on and make me whole

I'm standing on solid ground cause I know
I'm one percent body, ninety-nine percent soul

Now I am not my own, I was bought with blood
Once was lost but now I know
I've been found by love, your love

One percent body, ninety-nine percent soul
I want to look like you, talk like you, know you more
One percent body, ninety-nine percent soul
Make me more like you, come on and make me whole

I'm standing on solid ground cause I know
I'm one percent body, ninety-nine percent soul
