

Keep You

Maude

My phone rings. You are calling to say
That you're dressing up for me.
You know you're a stunner, however,
You try to look.

However, however.

I don't need my eyes to see
Why keep you, why keep you.
I don't need my eyes to see
Why keep you, why keep you.

It's as simple as you change me,
Which is complex to explain.
It's as shame you had to go for me
To see what I failed to show.

You complain about the things, I don't say
Or accuse me of kissing your A. Oh
Anyone can see that you're a stunner,
However, you try to look.

However, however.

I don't need my eyes to see
Why keep you, why keep you.
I don't need my eyes to see
Why keep you, let me keep you again.
