Why Can't I

Maureen McGovern

Feeling the way I do, I'd like to say, "I do!" Heaving a heavenly sigh Everybody has someone Why can't I?

Creeping to bed alone,
Resting my head alone
Only my pillow nearby
Some have a reason for dreaming
Why can't I?

I feel forsaken
On nights like this
Can't I awaken
To someone's kiss?

Two feet are ever cold Four feet are never cold I only mean to imply: Everybody has someone Why can't I?

Should girls be good girls?
I think they should
I need a good man
To make me be good

Only my book in bed Knows how I look in bed Nobody hears when I cry Everybody has someone Why can't I?
