

My Heart Has Been Restored

Maurette Brown Clark

I want to tell you about the way I felt yesterday.
My emotions they got in the way.
How quickly I forgot to trust you Lord,
To stand upon the promise of your Word.
But faith grabbed a hold of me, and it changed my unbelief.
My heart has been restored once again.

I believe in you Lord. I'm sorry for not trusting you before.
(But faith grabbed a hold of me and changed my unbelief)
My heart has been restored once again.

Now things are different, than the day before.
God made a way. He opened up a door, oh.
In just one day everything has changed.
God answered me and now I'm no longer the same.
Oh, some things I've lost some things I've gained.
My heart will never be the same. I have been restored once again.

I believe in you Lord
(Ohh Ohh Ohh I believe in you Lord.)
I'm sorry for not trusting you before. (I thought I was trusting you before. Sorry for not trusting you with my whole heart, but faith grabbed a hold of me and changed my unbelief.)
My heart has been restored once again.

My heart has been restored once again.

My faith is renewed! Yes I'll trust you My heart has been restored once again (6x)

My faith... Yes I'm trusting you Jesus
My faith is renewed right now. Oh Lord yes I'll trust in you Jesus.
I'll trust you like I never trusted you before my faith is renewed.
I feel stronger Jesus. I feel better Jesus.
My faith looks up to Thee. Oh lamb of Calvary.

My faith, my faith is renewed Jesus. Daily it's renewed! Daily it's renewed! Oh yes I'll trust! Yes I'll trust you all the more!
My faith! Yes my faith's renewed.
Yes... I'll trust you. I thought I was trusting you but now I can trust you all the more. I can trust you better than I did before.

My faith, (yes it's renewed (3x)) Yes I'll trust you Lord, through the thick and thin, through the muck and the myrry clay.
Yes I'll trust. I'll trust in you! My faith is renewed... Oh! I 'll trust in you, Yeaha!

My heart has been restored once again, ohh... yes it is. My heart... it's restored, once... See if I never had a test, how could I have a testimony my heart...

Where you lead me that's where I'm gonna follow. My faith looks up to thee my heart (been restore, yes it has, yes it has) Thou Lamb of Calvary. Savior divine, my heart has been restored, it's been restored, yes it's restored.

Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yes! Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeaha! (restore, once again). Put your hand on your heart and say "My heart has been restore once again! "
