

Fly Again

Mavado

We wanna let the...

I was born in the street I'm a fighter
I was born as a survivor
Hear my son, hear me again, I'ma fly again
Even when they try to break me
I got them doing greatly
Hear my son, hear me again,

I'ma grow my wings again, I'ma fly again
Don't know how, don't know when, I'ma fly again
I'ma grow my wings again, I'ma fly again
Don't know how, don't know when, I'ma fly again

... loves me dearly, they can't see me, but I know they hear me
They can't touch me, no they feel me
Flow so magical like a genie
From day 1, believe in yourself
Don't let one make you deceive in yourself
Me could have never change for someone
If the devil speak... leave them to hell
Then lock me up, have me grieve in my cell
I'm same to myself and I believe in this hell
Do I locked up in detention
Doing life and still got extension on sins

I was born in the street I'm a fighter
I was born as a survivor
Hear my son, hear me again, I'ma fly again
Even when they try to break me
I got them doing greatly
Hear my son, hear me again,

I'ma grow my wings again, I'ma fly again
Don't know how, don't know when, I'ma fly again
I'ma grow my wings again, I'ma fly again
Don't know how, don't know when, I'ma fly again

Promise a payback to my enemies in time
Know you listening know this girl is mine
I'm the devil in the dirt they couldn't find, yeah
Shock me up, wanna see me suffer
But I survive and stings get tougher
Wasn't there when I was going through the slaughter, slaughter
I know you try to get me down, I know you trying very hard
But I'm still here in this jungle, sending my regards

Cause I was born in the street I'm a fighter
I was born as a survivor
Hear my son, hear me again, I'ma fly again
Even when they try to break me
I got them doing greatly
Hear my son, hear me again,

I'ma grow my wings again, I'ma fly again
Don't know how, don't know when, I'ma fly again
I'ma grow my wings again, I'ma fly again
Don't know how, don't know when, I'ma fly again

I'ma grow my wings again, I'ma fly again
No, no, no, no, no
