

Come Fly Away

Maverick Sabre

(Verse 1)

When the world don't seem to care and it hurts down beneath your stare getting worse started feeling worthless and yeah it crossed my mind is it worth it i just head your mother lost a child

(Pre Chorus)

Could be gone in the morning without even a warning and when i'm gone will you remember this and even through the war and and the rain as it pours in when i'm gone will you remember this

(Chorus)

Come fly away somewhere been here for days wanting and nothing has changed for you your tired and you don't wanna live like this

but nothing has changed for you yeah i'm tired and i don't wanna live like this

(Verse 2)

you rose and have grown through these concrete streets all alone your a soldier through these politics had us facing all this hatred now we lost our minds see the races on the stages can you see the sign

(Pre Chorus)

and when i'm gone will you remember this nah nah
when i'm gone will you remember this

(Chorus)

you're tired and you don't wanna live like this

no oh
you don't wanna live ,you don't wanna live like this no you don't wanna live ,you don't wanna live like this tomorrow
you don't wanna live ,you don't wanna live like this

you don't wanna live like this

(Chorus x2)

Come fly away somewhere

you don't wanna live ,you don't wanna live like this no
