Norman

Max Romeo

Norman the gambler Rides around in a rambler Diamonds and pearls in the back

Occupation, house master He lives of the less Running from the east to the west

Oh, let me tell you more Norman never lose, always wins Yet Norman never give a way a bit If you ask for a less he said he wants more

Norman the gambler Rides around in a rambler With pretty girls in the back

He always sets the pack Norman always jumps a jack Every hand that he shows Is a flush or straight

Let me tell you more Norman never lose, always wins Yet Norman never give a way bit If you ask him for a less he said he wants more

He always sets the pack Norman always jumps the jack Yeah

Norman the gambler Rides around in a rambler With pretty girls in the back

Occupation, house master He lives off the less If you ask him for a less he said he wants more

But let me tell you so Norman never lose, always wins Yet Norman never give a way bit If you ask him for a less he said he wants more

Let me tell you so He always sets the pack, Norman always jumps the jack And every hand that he show Is a flush or straight

Ah, do you hear? Norman the gambler Rides around in a rambler Diamonds and pearls in the back

Occupation, house master Who lives off the less Running from the east to the west Ah, let me tell you so Norman never lose, always wins Yet Norman never give a way bit If you ask for a less, he said he wants more More, more

Ah do you hear? He always sets the pack Norman always jumps a jack And every hand that he show is a flush or straight

Enjoy your trees, jumping jack
