

Two Faced People

Max Romeo

You sat at my table and eat
Just like you were my brother
I could never ever believe
You were just a back-stabber
You wish me luck in front of my face
And evil when my back is turned
It's a part of your mind
So I left you to time
You will pay for your crime
Two faced people
How wicked you are
Two faced people
You'll never get far
You led me to think you're my friend
When you were my enemy
You take my kindness for weakness
My weakness for granted
You wish me good in front of my face
And bad when my back is turned
But I'll pay you no mind
I just left you to time
You will pay for your crimes
Two faced people
How wicked you are
Two faced people
You'll never get far
Two faced people
How wicked you are
Two faced people
You'll never get far
You led me to think you're my friend
When you were my enemy
You take my kindness for weakness
My weakness for granted
You wish me good in front of my face
And bad when my back is turned
But I left you to time
I'll pay you no mind
You will pay for your crimes
Two faced people
How wicked you are
Two faced people
You'll never get far
