

Everyday

Max Schneider

Everyday, everyday, everyday
Everyday is a love song, with you, with you, with you ohhhhhh
When you're gone it just feels wrong, it's true, it's true, woa hhhhh
The sun always shine, with you by my side, the moon just don't know what to do
I can spend my whole life long, singing just for you
Everyday is a, everyday is a, everyday is a love song
Everyday is a, everyday is a, everyday is a love song with you, with you, with you
Everyday is a love song with you Tell me that you can feel it
Do you, do you, do you? Ohhhh
Just come close, let me hear it
That you're falling too Cause' the stars are all bright, when you're in my sight, the s un don't compare to you
I could spend my whole life long, belonging just to you
Everyday is a, everyday is a, everyday is a love song
Everyday is a, everyday is a, everyday is a love song with you
My soul you save, just take my name, do anything for you
My love to take, my heart to break, won't hesitate for you
Everyday is a, everyday is a, everyday is a love song
Everyday is a, everyday is a, everyday is a love song!
You're the air to my lungs, you're kick to my drums, you're the bee and I'm stung
You're the spark to my fire, you take me higher, my only desire
Everyday ohhhhh
Everyday
Everyday is a love song...with you, with you, with you, with yo u
Everyday is a love song
With you, with you, with you baby
Yeah, yeah
It's a love song.
