

Never-ending Days

Maximilian Hecker

Two thousand words, two thousand lies
It's just a veil over my eyes
And all my friends feel just like I do
And all my friends are sad

The night comes down, I fall asleep
And hope to vanish at highspeed
For all my friends feel just like I do
And all my friends are sad

So leave me crying
And leave me singing
About the never-ending days
So leave me homeless
And leave me naked
I'll stand the never-ending days without you
