

Snow

Maximilian Hecker

Doubts have vanished
All is clear
White, smooth, endless, outright, sheer
And I smile as I sink to the ground

Snow is falling down on me
I start crying blissfully

Lazy diamonds poured by heaven
Lie down on my red, hot cheeks
Drowsy drift ice
Live forever
I fall deeply into sleep

Doubts have vanished
All is clear
White, smooth, endless, outright, sheer
And I smile as I rise into heaven
