

Heart Of Stone

Maxx

Tell me why oh why
Do you always try to believe
I can't stand the pain
I need to break out and be free

Tell me honestly
Why don't you just leave me alone
After all this time
I know now, your heart's of stone

Can't you understand all is said and done
It's all over now, our love is gone
I can't stand the pain, no more love to gain
Everything I gave, it was all in vain

I can't help myself
I'm going to lose my mind
Now I'm on my own
Cause I know your heart's of stone
