

War On Terror In The Eyes Of The Law Pentagon Papers

MaYaN

Drop the grey curtain and reveal
Your truly sharp intentions
Drop the weapons and appeal
To all your moral senses

Common sense
Indifference
Negligence

Innocence
Obedience
Impotence

Stop the sick falsehoods and reveal
Your goals and true intentions

Stop denial don't conceal
The devious inventions

Flaws of silent killers
No remorse for them

Those about to die
Will thank you from the afterlife

You're a licensed killer
But you will expire
Once your day has come
To bring your dirty deeds to light

Don't thwart our goals
Don't underrate us
We're in control
Of you all

When you kill civilians
Never show remorse

We have our excuse
We walk away without a bruise

You are allowed to commit
Very big mistakes
As long as they've been made
To benefit our greater good

Common sense
Indifference
Negligence

Innocence
Obedience
Impotence
