

Life Eternal

Mayhem

A dream of another existence
you wish to die
a dream of another world
you pray for death to release the soul.
One must die to find peace inside, you must get eternal
I am a mortal but am i human ?
How beautiful life is now when my time has come.
A human destiny but nothing human inside.
What'll be left of me when I'm dead, there was nothing when I lived.
What you found was eternal death
no one will ever miss you.
