

Bang! The Witch Is Dead

Maylene and the Sons of Disaster

You've ruined all my endings.
Stay safe I'll drown in time.
The abuse had you and it was long overdue to let go.
This love division casting stones fighting for you.
I don't think you heard me I said fighting for you.
So close to commitment did I miss out or make it away just in time.
We don't care they say call it off, and what's said by many goes.
I feel abandoned, but it feels good.
No screams from you this time.
Stronger and better without you.
Face the facts I ain't coming back.
