

What Are You Doing The Rest Of Your Life

Maysa

What are you doing the rest of your life?
North and south and east and west of your life
I have only one request of your life
That you spend it all with me
All the seasons and the times of your days
All the nickels and the dimes of your days
Let the reasons and the rhymes of your days
All begin and end with me
I want to see your face in every kind of light
In fields of gold and forest overnight
And when you stand before the candles on the cake
Oh let me be the one to hear the silent wish you make
Those tomorrows waiting deep in your eyes
In the world of love you keep in your eyes

I'll awake and rest asleep in your eyes
It may take a kiss or two
And you are my life
Summer, winter, spring, and fall of my life
All I ever will recall of my life
Is all of my life with you
Is all of my life with you
Is all of my life with you
All I ask with you
Is all of my life with you
Is all of my life with you
Is all of my life with you
All I ask with you
With you
