Bells Ring

Bells ring into the night Sounds like a mystery sonnet at night Hold your throat and I'll come together And see the light that goes away Leave my heart down by the water It sleeps inside my soul It isn't true about your father Just hold me down by the water This ? black as the moonlight Look up to see your weakness in the sky Nobody's out to buy your story Nobody wants to know your reason why Hold your hands and throw the water In front of me to know how I feel Don't put it all into your hero You're gone, feeling You're gone, feeling You're gone, feeling Don't want to say that I'm through with it Just want to be like I am inside Right by your side
