

Under My Car

Mazzy Star

Saw you layin' under my car, but you took it too far
Don't you know
Held your hand, well I knew you slipped away
Watched your eyes, turn to grey, in mine
But you're still lingering
I see it somehow
You know what I mean, don't you
Don't you
Say what you mean
I've said it so well
Me and my own
I still, but you're damned
My eyes are crying, as you slip from my view
I guess you know it, I feel for you
Yes I do
Saw you layin under my car, but you took it too far
Don't you know
Held your hand, as you, slipped away
Watched your eyes turn to grey tonight
Me, I'm alone
I'm just driving away, from the side of you laying in death
Goodbye before I cry
I know you feel for me too
And I do
But it's the end
Goodbye my friend
