Like Mahatma Gandhi followed by a horde of hotties

Or the feds on the trail of a Mr. John Gotti,

I'm a sound wave tsunami, vocal origami,

hijack the mic and it's not like anyone can stop me.

It's like arithmetic, the way I make it stick,

some say it's gibberish, some say it's silly shit.

But some people pay a cover charge to listen to it,

Some people take the path train to jersey for it.

Ladies! In the corner with your hand on your hip,

Make you jump so high that the record will skip.

Make you feel so good that the room starts to spin.

My favorite kinda nut is a macadamian.

I said come on all you honeys, I am beggin to begin,

I say I gotta get the get the grand, gotta get within,

gotta get more cream than wisconsin, honeyroom suite at the sheridan, bath tub full of expensive gin, lots of candles and violins, bikinis made of diamonds, honeys beggin' me to break their hy-o-mens.
