

Cry Tonight

MC Lars

I remember that night,
so cold and so dark,
kind of like your heart...

I wanted to die,
I wanted to cry,
I wish we can go from the start.

I'm trying to run,
I'm trying to hide,
But just know that I will...

Cry tonight...
My hands around your hands -
I won't let you...
Die tonight...
My heart's in your hands -
I won't let you...
Die...

Don't want to fight,
I don't want to write,
Any more songs about you.
Still waiting it out,
Why do you have to shout,
I just want to forget you.

I was trying to run,
Trying to hide,
But just know that I will...

Cry tonight...
My hands around your hands -
I won't let you...
Die tonight...
My heart's in your hands -
I won't let you...

Die Die Die
I won't let you...
Die Die Die
I won't let you
Dieeeeeeeeeeeeeee...
