

Generic Crunk Rap

MC Lars

Lars you're on in ten minutes. You ready?
I guess but... I still got to write some lyrics.
Alright, just remember it's crunk night.
In that case, I guess it won't be a problem.

This popular subgenre is brought to you by materialism.
We'd like to thank Bentley, Aliz© champagne, and Sean Jean clothing. We'd like to thank the record industry for Marketing hip-hop stereotypes to 12 year olds and a pop
Culture that unquestioningly consumes vapid,
Superficial entertainment.

Phrase about my gun, rhyme about my loot
Phrase about these haters I sometimes have to shoot
Rhyme about my clothes, props to my hometown (Carmel Valley!)
Lyrics that say nothing - cause that's how we get down
Phrase about my clique, don't step to me punk
Gratuitous rhyme about keeping it crunk
Big ups to our genre, we do it our own way
It's just too bad our songs don't have anything to say!

Chorus where I scream cause I don't know how to sing
Rhyme supporting guns, and also drinking 40's
Misogynist rhyme about banging lots of shorties
Rhyme about my dough, and then some made up lyrics
Get off the gas you swinga, check the deuce, yo sabiirit
